Letter no. G.C. 205 d. 27-2-1935

Sends a copy of resolution passed at the Sixth Annual Medical Confce requesting the supply of printed copies of Gradation list of Medical Subordinates to every Member & recommends sanction to the same.

(1) Kind refce is invited to Chief Secy's Note and the appl. of the Genl Secy and Member at paras 3 to 6 in the P&S Collns No. 4-1931. Pg. 'A' expressing that it is desirable to supply copies of the gradation list to officials and to this office letter dt. 15-7-1931 Pg 'C'.

(2) The Senior Surgeon has opened his question for reconsideration Subd. for orders.

14/3

(3) It was considered unnecessary or undesirable to supply copies as they would be available for consultation or reference in the offices to which they would belong. If the proposal is accepted & this practice has to be extended to other offs, the no. of copies to be printed would be enormous. On this ground this proposal was not accepted in July 1931. Whether the question requires reconsideration now is for orders.

(4) There is no need to reconsider the orders already passed.
